

Lubricating Oils

Will be used very freely for the next six or eight months so we wish again to call the attention of all Mill men and users of machinery to our TROPIC LUBRICATING OILS. For years this brand has been used on these Islands and each season the demand has increased so that this year we have had to build a special oil warehouse at Kakaako to hold the hundreds of barrels of oils we have to carry in stock. Tropic Cylinder, Engine, Machine, Dynamo and Car-box oils are the ones you want if you want everything to run smoothly.

Benton Boiler Compound

This compound is entirely vegetable contains no oil or acid, it being a natural preservative for iron or steel. It rots the scale in the boiler and gradually cleans same. After the boiler becomes clean, the compound, if used according to directions, will keep the scale forming properties of the water in the form of solution or pendent, and the boiler can be kept clean, and the scale forming properties of said water can be blown out in the form of mud. It is a great saver of fuel as it will clean and keep clean any boiler. Let us send you a barrel on trial, no pay if not satisfactory. Packings, waste, compounds, engineers' tools and supplies of all kinds, at

ONE DEATH TWO LIKELY

Chinaman Taken from Joss House.

THAT STRUCTURE DOOMED

Honolulu Quarantined--Health Board
Asks for a Quarter of a Million Dollars.

By order of the Board of Health, all the Judicial District of the City of Honolulu is hereby placed in strict quarantine, and all persons are forbidden to leave the district without permission of the Board of Health. All persons outside of the district are forbidden to harbor any person coming from the district without the permission of the Board of Health.

An unknown Chinaman, who was taken to the Chinese Hospital from Yee Hing's coffin store on Beretania street as a suspect, died at the institution at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Dr. Howard had been watching the case and had considered it one of grave suspicion.

Another autopsy, held at the morgue at 10 o'clock last night discovered firm grounds for the suspicion, and one more death from plague is recorded. The body was cremated at once.

Death in the Joss House. Another suspicious case was reported by Dr. Howard to the Board of Health yesterday morning. The doctor, who is acting as physician to the United Chinese Societies, was called by a member of that body to examine a Chinaman, who was lying ill at the Joss-house on Pauahi, between River and Maunakea streets.

A careful examination of the patient revealed symptoms which justified a report to the Board and the removal of the man to the Chinese Hospital. Three other inmates of the house, one of whom had just entered for the purpose of performing his regular devotions, were conveyed to the camp at Kakaako.

When the Chinese in the district learned of this case they gathered in strong force and talked excitedly of the prospects of their church being burned, but a few calmer spirits soothed the fears of the assembly and no trouble was made.

Japanese Baby Ill. The infant daughter of the Japanese woman from Merchant street, who was reported on Tuesday as a suspicious case, has also developed grave symptoms of the dread disease. Dr. Garvin found the child's pulse 160 and her temperature 103.5, while an enlarged inguinal gland gave additional cause for misgiving.

The condition of the woman herself is most grave, and her end is reported as very near. In company with a child, she was removed last evening to the pest house, and her husband and his brother were at the same time conveyed to the camp at Kakaako.

The Board of Health take exception to an article on this case which appeared in an evening paper of yesterday's date, and state that a guard was posted at the house immediately after the physician's report was received by them, and furthermore, that the house is not opposite the Telephone office, but in the rear of the old Blue Gate, next to a Japanese candy store, on Merchant street, and immediately back of No. 1 Engine House.

The condition of the Japanese lad taken to the pesthouse from Maunakea street on Tuesday is still unchanged but regarded as grave.

Buildings to be Burned.

Prior to the destruction by fire of Block 10 in Chinatown today, the premises on Merchant street, those on Beretania street from which the man who died in the Chinese Hospital yesterday was taken, and the Joss-house on Pauahi street will be set on fire, and the remaining lumber and refuse from previous fires will also be consumed as early as possible.

The Chinese merchants on the Waikiki side of the lane, which marks the boundary of the buildings condemned to be burned this morning, were busy all yesterday morning in fixing sheet-iron to the exposed sides of their stores to prevent the flames from leaping across the lane to the exposed wood-work.

The condemned area has a frontage on King street of about 150 feet by a depth of 150 feet toward Queen street, and includes the following premises: On King street, Tim Kee, tailor; C. Ahn, watchmaker; Yee Shun Kee, grocery; Hop Lee, restaurant; Japanese barbers shop, Chinese restaurant, Wo Lung, grocery, and Kong Sing Chin Co., merchandise. On Kekaulike street, Tim Kee, cookhouse; two Chinese not shops and sleeping rooms; Chinese merchandise store; Hing Chang's laundry and two natives' houses.

The merchants' committee were busy all of yesterday in removing merchandise from the condemned stores to C. R. Collins' warehouse, on King street, where it will be fumigated today.

A quantity of oil and firecrackers was also taken out and removed to another section and everything is now in readiness for the Fire Department.

The total number of persons at the Kakaako detention camp is 193 of mixed Hawaiian, Chinese and Japanese. The former race has the entire first floor of the kerosene warehouse, while the Asiatics are accommodated on the ground floor.

Meeting of Merchants.

Representatives of about twenty of the principal merchant firms in the city assembled at the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of discussing the situation in Chinatown, and its bearing toward themselves as distributing merchants. Mr. F. M. Swanzy presided at the meeting.

Mr. J. Wakefield read a communication addressed to the committee and signed by a number of Chinese merchants in the quarantined district, wherein they are authorized to remove merchandise from Chinatown, and are held blameless for any loss or damage sustained by the goods, either in removal, transit, fumigation, or storage, while in charge of the committee or its servants.

Mr. C. Kaiser detailed the work of the committee, in regard to the removal of merchandise from condemned buildings in Chinatown.

Discussion upon the need or additional warehouse accommodations in the event of further condemnation and destruction by the government, and also upon the question of expense in connection with the removal of goods therefrom, ended in the following resolutions, which were adopted unanimously:

That this meeting approves of the action of the committee appointed by them, and requests it to proceed with their work of salvage; arrange for warehouses, and incur such expense as may be necessary, such expense to be borne by the merchants pro rata with the sums owing them by the Chinatown storekeepers interested.

That Mr. A. Gartenberg be appointed treasurer, with power to collect up to $100 each from merchants interested in the removal of goods from condemned stores, as a preliminary measure for meeting such expenses as may be incurred by the committee.

That the committee be empowered to add another member.

Two Opium Dens.

Since the house to house and room to room inspection has been in progress in the Chinatown district, many strange and curious sights have been exposed. The latest discoveries were two opium dens perched high above the ground and cleverly screened from a casual glance about the courtyards which were the initial points of starting through the maze of passageways leading directly to the dens.
